LOCATION

Preston Street, Brighton—known as "Restaurant Street"—is just steps from the seafront and features a diverse selection of eateries, from cocktail bars and Italian bistros to grill houses and sushi spots. This lively street is home to popular venues like Wolfox, China Garden, Maggie Mae's Bar, and the Royal Sovereign Pub, all benefiting from steady pedestrian traffic both day and night.

Connecting the bustling Western Road shopping district to Brighton's main seafront promenade, Preston Street culminates at the iconic i360 tower, which has drawn over a million visitors since its opening in 2016.

The property is located on the eastern side of Preston Street, near the southern end, and is surrounded by a densely populated residential area, as well as numerous Airbnbs and hotel establishments, enhancing its appeal for both locals and visitors alike.

Description

A fully equipped, recently renovated takeaway and restaurant spanning the Ground and Lower ground floors, ready for immediate operation.
