LOCATION

The property occupies a prominent double-fronted corner position at the intersection of Caledonian Road and Lewes Road, one of Brighton's busiest commercial thoroughfares. This prime location benefits from a continuous flow of pedestrian and vehicular traffic throughout the day and night, serving as a key arterial route to and from Brighton city centre.

Strategically situated along the A270, the premises enjoy a highly visible spot amidst a lively mix of local, national, and independent retailers. Just steps from The Level and the Open Market, the area boasts a vibrant and dynamic atmosphere that attracts a diverse range of visitors.

Lewes Road is also known as Brighton's 'Academic Corridor,' home to a thriving student population due to its proximity to universities and student accommodations. Combined with a strong residential community, this location offers a broad and ever-growing customer base, making it an ideal setting for a successful venture.

Description

While the property is well-suited for a café or bar operator, its classification within the versatile 'E Class' category makes it adaptable for a wide variety of uses, catering to diverse tenant needs.

The premises feature an open-plan, split-level trading area on the Ground Floor, further enhanced by an available outdoor seating area and a fitted W/C facility.
