

LOCATION

Edward Street lies on Brighton's vibrant east side. Once a narrow, character-filled thoroughfare lined with independent shops, its spirit lives on in today's lively mix of businesses and community spaces.

Nearby, you'll find places like Speakers Corner, a café and creative hub where food and ideas come together, and the Marlborough Pub & Theatre, hailed by The Guardian as "a refuge for cutting edge performance."

The area is home to major employers such as American Express and is well supported by popular independents like Brighton Bierhaus and Junkyard Dogs. Green spaces are plentiful, with Mighell Street Gardens and Dorset Gardens on the doorstep, and Queen's Park or the Royal Pavilion Gardens just a short stroll away.

Edward Street Quarter delivers a mix of high-quality homes, modern office space and vibrant retail, dining and leisure opportunities, all in a walkable neighbourhood. Brighton Station is within easy reach, and BTN Bike Share is available just outside the development.

This is a community with deep roots and a dynamic future.

Description

Join a dynamic new community purpose-built for Brighton's thinkers, creators and innovators.

Edward Street Quarter is a landmark mixed-use development in the heart of Kemptown, moments from the American Express HQ and close to the University of Brighton and Brighton College. The scheme provides 125,000 sq ft of high-quality workspace for more than 4,000 professionals, together with 168 new homes and 45,000 sq ft of retail, restaurant and leisure accommodation.

The available lower-ground accommodation offers an exceptional environment for occupiers whose operations do not rely on natural light. Ideal uses include health and wellness studios, treatment or consulting rooms, medical and therapy practices, fitness or Pilates studios, private offices, creative production spaces, or complementary support facilities for existing on-site occupiers.
